Women control more wealth today than ever before, estimated to be growing globally at $5 trillion each year. They are holding more leadership positions with significant contributions to the bottom line. Yet, women are more stressed about their finances than men. This has a big impact on individual, team, and organizational productivity and profitability.

In this 45-minute empowering and transformative session, “The Future of Finance is Female: Five Principles of Habit Change for Financial Independence” financial expert Robyn Thompson offers a fresh and energizing perspective on how women can overcome roadblocks, empower themselves and reach their full wealth-building potential.

Robyn’s inspirational speaking style and extensive knowledge make her the perfect choice to energize and motivate your audience. Don’t miss this opportunity to empower your female leaders with the tools they need to transform their financial habits and shape their financial futures. Join Robyn as she shares personal stories from growing up in poverty to building a multi million dollar wealth management business. Along the way, she imparts invaluable insights through a fresh, neuroscience-based lens, inspiring women to pave their way to financial success.
